FOOTBALL David Lillemon 0-8 ACC returns eight lettermen and the Blue Devil roster is dotted with 30 names, not a lot considering 41 that initially signed up. "If we stay healthy it will be a fun year" said second year coach Dave Lillemon. Trailing 28-0 midway in third quarter, ACC rallied with 13 unanswered points before Brainerd sealed the victory. The win was a huge factor evident of a 70 yard punt by ACC late in the 3rd quarter that pinned Brainerd on its own 2 yard line. They fumbled and ACC's Keith Frank pounced on it for a 2 yard TD and Austin's first score. Ham Peterson added a 3 yard plunge in the 4th quarter for all of ACC's scoring. Inver Hills defeated Austin 21-7 as there was no scoring by either team after halftime. Quarterback Jay Schroeder found Jim Fruechte in the end zone for an 18 yard TD that put Austin ahead 7-0. The Giants scored 21 points in the first half to seal the win. Anoka Ramsey scored six touchdowns on four pass plays and two runs and defeated ACC 40-0. The loss drops the Blue Devils to 0-3 on the season. Normandale held Austin to 119 yards and handed them a 34-0 setback. ACC trailed 7-0 at halftime but wore down the second half. The Blue Devils turned the ball over seven times and lost to Waseca 36-6 in their conference opener. The only score for ACC was on a Cal Copranos pass to Ham Peterson for a 20 yard scoring toss. Rochester spoiled ACC's homecoming with a 14-6 win over the Blue Devils. Of all Blue Devil's scoring chances, the greatest came with one minute to play in the game. Jay Schroeder's pass attempt to Steve McCool just fell off his fingertips in the end zone that ended any hopes of an upset. Willmar upended ACC 13-0 in Austin's final home game and dropped them to 0-7 on the year. Neither team scored until the Warriors found pay dirt twice in the fourth quarter after ACC's turnovers (who had 8 for the day). Worthington upended the Blue Devils 21-0 as ACC finished the season winless at 0-8. ACC gained 171 yards to 184 for Worthington but it was three plays that determined the outcome. Steve Jette- All MCCC (def back) Jeff Heinzl - All Region XIII(LB). Honorable Mention; Jay Schroeder(QB), Keith Franck(RB), Dan Callahan(C), Brendt Jensen(T), Neil Drew(E), Jeff Heinzl (LB), Todd Lindbo (DE).

VOLLEYBALL Coach Denise Martin 23-14-1 Denise Martin takes over for long time successor Vel Moen and comes from a state of rich tradition. The Keokuk, Iowa native is optimistic about the group she takes over, including seven letter-winners. In the season opener, Austin won the ACC invite, winning three matches defeating Anoka-Ramsey 17-15, 15-7, then registering a 15-6, 11-15, 15-3 win over Worthington, and winning the third match over NIACC 16-14, 15-12. Tracy Ball led them with seven kills, 25 assists and one block. ACC split a division pair, losing to Rochester 15-3, 15-12 and defeating Normandale 15-11, 12-15, 15-0. Brenda Homeier had four kills and three blocks in the win over the Lions. ACC posted three victories to up their record to 7-1. The Blue Devils defeated WWTI 15-12, 15-3, topped North Central Bible College 15-4, 15-11, and rounded off the triangular with a 15-1, 15-0 setback to Inver Hills. After winning three of their next five matches to go to 10-3, ACC won a pair at Worthington defeating Waseca 15-1, 15-11 and handing Worthington a 15-11, 15-8 setback. Danna Lastine had five ace serves in the victories. The win improves ACC's record to 12-3. At the Inver Hills Invite, ACC won two, lost one and tied won as Deb Coughlin and Tracy Ball powered the ACC's service game while Kris Gullord and Brenda Homeier played strong at the net. Austin now stands 14-4-1. The Blue Devils lost a pair as Worthington defeated ACC 15-7, 15-7 and Bethany downed Austin 15-7, 15-2 in conference action. Austin won three and lost three at the Rochester invite to drop to 17-7-1.

NIACC defeated the Blue Devils as did Willmar (9-15, 19-17, 17-19) and Waseca (15-8, 15-10). The two losses at the final home meet left ACC 18-10-1. Austin won 3 of its next five matches to finish the regular season 21-12-1. The Blue Devils finished fourth at the southern division playoffs with a 2-2 record. ACC opened the tournament with a 15-13, 15-7 win over Worthington before being knocked into the loser's bracket by Rochester 15-11, 15-2. In the final two games, ACC defeated Waseca 15-6, 15-13 before being eliminated by Willmar in three, 10-15, 15-11, 15-8. ACC was led by Kris Gullord with 27 kills. The Blue Devils end the season 23-14-1.

BASKETBALL Coach David Lillemon 4-18 Five lettermen return from last year's 7-15 club that concluded the second half of the season 7-6. Waldorf handed ACC a 90-63 setback in the opener. Eric Sheehan led the Blue Devils with 19 points while Bruce Mair chipped in with 11 points. Brainerd crushed Austin 94-59. Late in the second half the score was tied 34-34. Sheehan had 19 points and 11 rebounds to lead the Blue Devils. Austin dropped to 0-4 with losses against Waukesha Tech (74-41) and U of W Waukesha (99-71) at the Pewaukee tournament. Eric Sheehan led both games with 12 and 29 respectively. ACC shot 29 of 30 free throws in the second contest. Rod Goette chipped in with 16 points and 8 rebounds. The Blue Devils recorded their first win by defeating WWTI 70-65. Trailing 46-41, Austin rallied behind Bruce Mair and Eric Sheehan. Mair ended by with 20, Sheehan 18 and Norm Haddler had 14 tallies. Austin suffered two injuries to both starting center (Sheehan) and backup center (Dean Chaffee) in the first game of the ACC invitational. "We lost our big kids and that rally hampered our inside game" said Coach Lillemon. ACC fell to Lake Region of North Dakota 86-68 in the first round and 65-51 to WWTI in the third place game. Sheehan had 22 in game one and Mair also had 22 points in game two. Austin dropped to 1-6. Iowa Lakes routed ACC 104-63 in non-conference action. ACC was outscored 48-43 in the second half so that was positive for the Blue Devils according to Lillemon. Bruce Mair paced Austin with 16 while Ham Peterson chipped in with 13 points. Anoka-Ramsey handed ACC a 96-65 setback in the conference opener. Austin was led by Rod Goette with 19 points. Mair chipped in with 14 points. Worthington defeated the Blue Devils 79-70 to drop ACC to 1-9. Eric Sheehan (20), Bruce Mair (19) and Goette (12) all were in double figures.

Ham Peterson came off the bench to score 16 points and led ACC to their first home win with a 90-63 victory over Waseca in conference action. Besides Peterson, Sheehan contributed 14 while Norm Haddler added a dozen. ACC fell to Bethany 77-63 as free throws played a big part in the loss. While the Vikings were 19-20 from the foul line, ACC did not even get there until late in the game. Eric Sheehan (15) and Peterson (14) were the only two in double figures. Bruce Mair had a season high 25 tallies but it wasn't enough as Rochester defeated ACC 67-60. Willmar handed ACC a conference setback defeating ACC 70-57. Dean Chaffee came off the bench to score 17 points. Austin lost to Inver Hills 90-62 in a very physical game. Sheehan led his team with 15 points. Normandale handed Austin a 78-73 loss to drop them to 3-14 and 2-7 in league play. ACC had five players in double figures; Sheehan (15), Goette (14), Jay Schroeder (14), Haddler (13), and Bruce Mair with 11 points. Worthington remained unbeaten as they defeated the Blue Devils 80-63. Mair was tops with 15, followed by Ham Peterson who had 13 tallies. ACC recorded its fourth win as they edged Waseca 58-57. Rod Goette had a season high 27 points in the victory. A lane violation nullified the game tying free throw with :01 remaining as Waseca went down in defeat. Bethany defeated ACC 84-73 in conference action. Austin had good balance with Sheehan (16), Goette (14), Haddler (12) and Mair (12) all in double figures. Rochester cruised by ACC 96-70 in conference action, dropping Austin to 3-10 in league play and 4-17 overall. Bruce Mair had 19 points in the loss. ACC ended its season with a 93-83 setback to Willmar. Austin jumped to an 18-5 lead but let it slip away and led by four at halftime. Eric Sheehan (19), Bruce Mair (17), and Norm Haddler (14) led the Blue Devils, who finished 4-18 overall. Eric Sheehan named to the first team Southern Division All-Conference team.

BASKETBALL Coach Denise Martin 8-13 Denise Martin takes over the reigns for long time veteran Vel Moen. Waldorf handed ACC a 74-55 loss in the opener. Tracy Ball led the Blue Devils with 15 points while Becky Moritz added a dozen points and 10 rebounds. The Blue Devils finished third in the Inver Hills invite defeating Concordia JV 58-55 after losing 66-42 to Madison Area Technical College. Dana Lastine led a late comeback with 19 points while Tracy Ball chipped in with 13 points in the win over Concordia. WWTI intercepted a pass under ACC's basket and scored a lay up with four seconds remaining and defeated the Blue Devils 60-59. Lastine poured in 24 points in the loss. Lake Region crushed ACC 77-31 in the opening round of the ACC invite.

Austin rebounded with a 56-54 win over Iowa Lakes for third place. Deb Coughlin hit two free throws with six seconds to preserve the win. Dana Lastine finished with 21 points to lead all scorers. ACC improved to 3-4 with a 71-64 win over Iowa Lakes behind freshman Dana Lastine's 24 points. Becky Moritz tallied 20 points and recorded 15 rebounds in the victory. After losing to Minneapolis, Anoka-Ramsey handed ACC an 81-66 loss to drop them to 4-5. Moritz led the Blue Devils with 20 tallies. Worthington rallied and defeated ACC 73-40. Becky Moritz was the only player in double figures with 18. Lastine did not make the trip as she was stranded in Lyle due to poor road conditions. ACC defeated Waseca 61-36 for its first conference win. Dana Lastine had 19 in the win, upping the Blue Devils overall record to 5-6. Bethany blitzed ACC 77-51 in league play. Three players scored in double figures, led by Lastine and Moritz with a dozen apiece. Rochester dropped Austin to 1-3 and 5-8 overall with a 62-49 setback to the Blue Devils. Becky Moritz paced ACC with 15 followed by Kari Dierks with 11. Willmar defeated Austin 66-61 after leading by five at halftime. Ann Jette had a season high 14 to lead the Blue Devils in scoring. ACC held on to a 55-50 win over Inver Hills. 'It was pretty close the entire game as we basically traded baskets up until the end of the game' said Coach Martin. The win improved ACC to 6-9 overall. Austin had 30 turnovers and lost to Normandale 81-67. Austin is 1-4 in league play. Dana Lastine poured in a career high 39 points. Austin dropped to 6-11 as Worthington defeated ACC 60-50. BASEBALL David Lillemon 6-19 Six veterans return and Coach Lillemon says, "we are going to be better. I think .500 is a realistic goal". ACC split its opening doubleheader, winning 7-6 and dropping the nightcap 16-2 to Waldorf. Dan Lee drove home the winning run in the bottom of the sixth with a single. Steve Jette had a three run double for the Blue Devils in their victory. No pitcher threw more than three innings on the day. Austin dropped a conference pair to Bethany 13-3 and 10-9. The first game was called after five innings due to the 10 run rule. In the nightcap, ACC trailed 10-6 into the sixth but a furious rally fizzled after scoring three runs with two outs.

Worthington pounded ACC 16-3 in game one, but ACC bounced back with an impressive 12-2 win to improve their record to 1-3 in league play and 2-4 overall. Dan Lee smacked 2 hits and had 3 RBI in the second contest. Mike Carlson pitched a complete 4 hit game to get the win. Bruce Mair pitched a complete game as ACC defeated Rochester 12-5 before the Yellowjackets gained a split with a 23-7 win over the Blue Devils. Neil Drews and Jamey Pratt each had two hits in the opener. ACC dropped to 3-7 as NIACC handcuffed Austin 16-4 and 3-0 in non-conference action. The Blue Devils collected only 8 hits on the day. Pitching woes continued as Austin lost to Waldorf 6-3 and 15-7. Austin was held to 6 hits in the opener but collected 15 hits in game two, including three by Neil Drews, Bart Brenz, and Steve Jette. But four ACC pitchers allowed 13 hits and six walks. The two losses made it five in a row and dropped ACC to 2-4, 3-9 overall. The Blue Devils lost the opener to undefeated Willmar 10-2 but gained a split defeating the Warriors 8-3 in what Coach Lillemon termed his "finest win" in two years. Dan Lee pitched a five-hitter which saw Austin score 5 runs in the seventh inning, to secure the victory after being tied 3-3. Jerry Bahr, Neil Drews, and Dan Lee each had three hits in the nightcap. ACC moved to 3-5 and 4-10 overall. Austin recorded a split with NIACC, losing the opener 11-2 but bouncing back with a 12-3 victory. In the opener, Bahr and Grenz each had two hits. In the second game, Randy Merrit stroked a huge 3 run double while Lee collected 3 hits and drove in 3 RBI. The split leaves Austin 3-5 in conference and 5-11 overall. The Blue Devils lost two heartbreakers to Bethany, 2-1 and 3-1 in conference action. ACC allowed only 8 hits and five runs as Bethany improved to 8-2 in league. Bruce Mair (first game) and Dan Lee pitched outstanding games. The Blue Devils split with Worthington, losing 4-3 but winning the nightcap 6-2 as again ACC received good pitching. Tom Cullen hurled a two-hitter in game one and Toby Kokiolek (3-0) held WCC to five hits in the second game. ACC moved to 6-14 and 4-8 in the conference. Dan Lee slapped two hits in game one and Steve Jette, Scott Rohne, Bruce Mair, Jay Schroeder, and Jamey Pratt all had two hits in the nightcap. Mair suffered a fracture in his right arm in a freak collision at first base while running out a ground ball. He is lost for the season. Rochester edged Austin 6-2 and 2-1 in a conference doubleheader. "We don't play to stay close" said Lillemon. "We're one play away, whether it's a pitch, or a hit of winning these close games". The Blue Devils dropped a 16-13 contest to WWTI in a steady rain at the park. ACC banged out 13 hits but four tired ACC pitchers surrendered the same amount of hits to the opposition. Scott Rohne had a big day, collecting four hits and scoring three runs. Jay Schroeder had a two run homerun in the loss, dropping Austin to 6-17. Willmar swept Austin 14-2 and 11-7 to end the season for ACC. Austin had only three hits in the opener and Tom Cullen suffered the mound loss. Jerry Bahr crushed a three run homerun in game two and Bart Grenz added three singles.

Austin finishes the year 4-12 in the league and 6-19 overall. Dan Lee; All-Division led ACC in hitting with a .346 (27 for 75) while Toby Koziolk was 3-0 on the mound.

SOFTBALL Coach Rolf Synogron 12-15 Six letter-winners return from last year's state tournament team. "We have a strong infield" said Coach Synogron. "Defense will have to tough in order of us to win". ACC opened the season with 10-0 and 5-4 losses to Waldorf. Austin collected only two hits in game one. In the nightcap, the Blue Devils led 4-2 after five innings but could not hang on for the victory. Inver Hill scored all three runs in the second inning and defeated ACC in the opener 3-2 despite Austin's Carey Truckenmiller pitching a two-hitter. All the runs by the Giants were unearned. In the second game, ACC committed five errors and lost 12-2 and dropped to 0-4 on the season. The Blue Devils defeated North Hennepin 8-7 and 4-2 for their first victories of the year. Aimee Granholm had the game winning single in the bottom of the seventh after Holly Tews had doubled. After winning game one 8-7, ACC recorded a 4-2 victory behind the pitching of Truckenmiller. Granholm had three hits in game one and Tricia Bednar collected a single and triple. Kirsten Finney had two hits and two RBI in the nightcap. Austin took 3rd place in the Inver Hills invitational in the eight team field. In the opener, ACC defeated Madison Tech 1-4, as Penny Folie and Deb Coughlin each had three hits. In the semis, Inver Hills defeated Austin 4-1. Coughlin had two hits in the loss. The Blue Devils beat Anoka-Ramsey 4-2 for third place despite collecting only two hits. The victories improve Austin's record to 4-5. For the first time in five years, ACC defeated Rochester gaining a split with them, winning 9-6 before losing the nightcap 8-7. In the opener, Bednar went 3 for 4 and had 4 RBI. Her bases loaded triple in the fifth gave ACC the win. In the opener, Austin had five runners thrown out at the plate, the biggest one in the ninth inning. The Yellowjackets won the game in the tenth on a base hit with the bases loaded. Austin now has a 5-6 overall record. ACC dropped to 6-8 after placing fourth in the Normandale invite. ACC beat Anoka-Ramsey in the first game 5-0 behind the two-hitter by Carey Truckenmiller. Rochester defeated Austin 5-1 in the semifinals. In the 3rd place game, Holly Tews blasted a 3 run homerun but Normandale rallied and defeated Austin 5-4.

The one run loss was the fourth of the season for ACC. ‘We’ve got to learn how to win those” said Synogron. The Blue Devils lost five of their next six games, including a pair to NIACC 10-3 and 13-2. ACC’s Carey Truckenmiller (7-13) took the mound losses in both games. She has all of Austin’s 20 decisions this year. Kirsten Finney went 3 for 4. The Blue Devils closed out the conference schedule defeating the Rams from Waseca 17-3 and 11-1 to finish third in the league with a 4-4 record. Truckenmiller pitched a four-hitter in game one and a one-hitter in the nightcap to gain both wins. Holly Trews led a 16 hit attack in game one with four hits and four RBI. Aimee Granholm had three hits in game two. Austin completed the regular season 9-13. The Blue Devils won three and lost two in the state tournament and finished 5th overall in the 12 team field. Austin started out impressive as Karey Truckenmiller fired a two-hitter as ACC beat Itasca 2-0. Deb Coughlin got both RBI’s for ACC. Willmar defeated Austin 12-2 in the second round as the Blue Devils collected only two hits. Austin came back and beat Normandale 14-4 in five innings to remain alive in the tournament. Tricia Bednar had four RBI and Truckenmiller limited the Lions to six hits. ACC trounced Fergus Falls 15-2 to stay in contention. Coughlin had 3 of the 11 hits collected by Austin and Truckenmiller got her third win in four games. North Hennepin eliminated ACC 5-0 as the Blue Devils bat went silent collecting only three hits. Austin finished the year 12-15 overall.

TENNIS-WOMEN Coach David Dickinson & Terry Dilley 9-0 Region XIII Champions Four letter-winners return off last year's Region championship team. "Our experience is pretty good with this team" said Coach Dickinson. "I think we will be respectable". Austin has gone 20-1 in dual matches since 1986. ACC pounded Rochester 9-0 in their opening match. Christy Arnold won easily at #1, Vicki Karge shut out her opponent at #2, Michelle Bones won 6-1, 6-0 at #3. At #4, Darica Odegaard downed her opponent 6-0, 6-1. Joy Wilson won at #5 and Kris Kinney made it a clean sweep at #6 with a 6-2, 6-4 victory. In doubles, Arnold and Bonnes, Karge and Odegaard, Wilson and Kinney all won their matches. Austin defeated Bethany 8-1 to improve to 2-0 on the season. ACC won its next two contests, including a 4-2 victory over Itasca. At #1, Christy Arnold lost and at #1 doubles the team of Arnold and Bonnes lost. The Blue Devils stayed undefeated (5-0) as they shut out North Hennepin. ACC was forced in doors due to the weather and defeated Mesabi 9-0 at the YMCA in Austin. The Blue Devils improved to 7-0 despite Vicki Karge losing her first match of the season as they defeated Bethany 7-2. The only other loss was at the #6 singles, where Kris Kinney was upended 6-1, 6-2. ACC defeated Brainerd 8-1 to remain undefeated. Austin defeated Rochester to close out the season 9-0. After day one of the Region XIII championships, ACC held a 10-8 lead over Hibbing. Rain washed out part of the first day's competition but the remaining first round was played indoors at the YMCA. The Blue Devils capped off an undefeated season with the Region XIII title, finishing with 16 points compared to Willmar who finished runner-up with 13 points. The Blue Devils, in winning their fourth consecutive Region XIII title, advance to the NJCAA tournament in Tucson, Arizona.

Kris Kinney, playing left handed due to a separated shoulder, teamed with Joy Wilson to win a crucial head to head battle over the Willmar's duo at #3 doubles to win the the title. Kinney also won the #6 singles with a 4-6, 6-2, 6-3 win over her opponent. Wilson and Darica Odegaard also won single titles. Wilson won the #4 while Odegaard downed her opponent 4-6, 6-0, 6-1 to win the #5 singles. All six members scored at least one point. The Austin Community College women's team was swept at the NJCAA tournament in Tucson, Arizona. ACC coach Dave Dickinson said he thought his team would be competing in a non-scholarship field, but instead played in a field that included all the national teams. Only two individuals won a set. At #6, Kris Kinney lost 4-6, 6-4, 6-1 and at #4, Joy Wilson lost 3-6, 6-2, 7-3. Members:Christy Arnold, Michelle Bonnes, Vicki Karge, Kris Kinney, Darica Odegaard, Kris Piller, Joy Wilson.
