

Drop/Add Policy

Fall & Spring Semester - Drop/Add period:	First 5 days of the semester.
Summer Sessions - Drop/Add period:	First 3 days of the summer session to add courses. First 5 days of the summer session to drop courses.

Students may drop or add courses through the fifth day of Fall and Spring Semester. For Summer Sessions, students may add courses through the third day of the session and drop courses during the fifth day of session. Students may drop or add courses on-line or in person in the Student Service Centers. Post Secondary Enrollment Option (PSEO) students are required to obtain the signature of a college counselor in order to drop or add courses. PSEO students may add courses through the fifth day of Fall and Spring Semester and may drop courses through the tenth day of Fall and Spring semester. Dropped courses do not appear on your transcript and do not impact academic standing.

For "short term" courses, students may drop or add courses one business day following the first class period. Students who drop "short term" courses for which they received financial aid will be required to repay in accordance with federal and state repayment policies.
