

R-STEP (Riverland-Science Technology Engineering Prep) Academy

R-STEP is a summer academy for ages 16-22 (entering 11th - grade and up) focused on STEM

July 6th – August 14th, 2020

Monday – Friday's - 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Riverland Community College - Austin Campus, 1900 8th Avenue NW, Austin Online, Austin West campus (schedule will be provided)

This eight-week program will increase students' knowledge and skills through:

- College-level courses in Math and English
- Courses will be taught via Zoom (may be on-campus if permitted)
- Applied research methods, guest speakers, STEM-based activities, field trips

Upon completion, R-STEP participants will earn 8 College credits – FREE!

College Courses

- MATH-2021: Fundamentals of Statistics*
- ENGL-1101: Composition I*
- CCLS-1000: First-Year College Experience
- In-person tutors/coaches to assist with college course work

Applied Research Learning & Enrichment

- Topics include Technology, Engineering, Ag/Food Science, and the Environment
 - Interaction with faculty, industry experts and peers
 - Involvement with a community service cleanup project

Application deadline: Friday, May 29th, 2020

Space is limited - Apply Now at www.riverland.edu/rstep

 Students must submit ACT or Accuplacer scores and a letter of recommendation for the program

* Students will be required to go through an orientation class before the R-STEP Academy starts

 Lunch and Snacks will be provided

This program is made possible through a grant from The Hormel Foundation.