FOOTBALL    Coach Dominic Krezowski  3-3    There was much doubt if AJC would field a team this fall. Uncle Sam robbed Coach Krezowski as the greatest number of potential players were expected to sign up for the armed forces. Others on the list dropped by the wayside for diversified reasons. Oliver “Andy” Anderson, a star fullback was elected captain for the JAYCEES. Luther College freshmen edged AJC 7-0 in the opening contest. A safety in the second contest lifted the Jaycees to a 9-7 win over Waldorf. Coach Krezowski’s AJC gridders passed for a touchdown in the final minutes to win 19-13 over Fort Dodge in its third contest. Mason City pulled off a Sleeper Play and defeated AJC 7-6 in its next contest. According to coach K, this was the Jaycees best played game this season despite the loss. AJC defeated Rochester 13-0 in a rain soaked field late in the season. The final contest with Hibbing was rained out due to a steady downpour. Both teams agreed to cancel the event due to the expense of ruining equipment and poor playing conditions. The season ended with a 3-3 record. It was announced on May 5, 1942 that Coach Krezowski had resigned as football and basketball coach to go into business with the Pittsburgh Coal Company.
