VOLLEYBALL

Coach Helen Jahr    7-22    Riverland Community College began the season 1-4 at the Ridgewater invitational. After splitting its first two matches opening day, the Blue Devils fell to Fergus Falls 5-15, 8-15, lost 8-15, 5-15 to NDSCS, and then lost to Ridgewater 15-13, 8-15, 11-15 in second day of competition. “We are very excited about the weekend” said Coach Jahr. Missy Avery led the team in kills with 18. ACC dropped a three set match to Bethany 3-15, 4-15, 2-15 in divisional play. Competing in an eight team tournament, RVLD brought home fourth place in the Rochester invitational. The Blue Devils lost to UW-LaCrosse 2-1 after winning game one 15-4. Riverland dropped its next two matches with Ridgewater and Iowa Lakes, losing both 2-0. In the final match of the day, the Blue Devils defeated Itasca 15-7, 15-13. Riverland Community College lost seven of nine matches to drop to 3-11 overall but returned home and defeated Anoka-Ramsey 15-3, 16-14, 14-16, 15-8 to improve to 1-2 in league play and 4-11 overall. Dagestad had nine kills in the 4th and decisive game and was later named Southern Division player of the week. Ridgewater upended Riverland 19-17, 15-10, 15-6 in divisional play but Coach Jahr felt her team played well and battled the whole way against a powerful Warrior team. Riverland swept Minnesota West 15-8, 15-6, 15-4 in conference action to improve to 2-3 in the conference and 5-12 overall. Sarah Nagale was perfect with 12 of 12 serving including two aces. Riverland gave Bethany all they wanted as the Vikings won in three, winning 15-11, 18-16, 15-12. “We just could not put it away” said Coach Jahr referring to the second game. Riverland dropped to 2-5 in conference and 5-15 overall after Rochester upended the Blue Devils 15-9, 15-11, 15-6. Missy Avery finished with 7 kills, 20 digs, and 14 of 14 serving with one ace. RVLD lost three matches in its own tournament, falling to Bethel JV 6-15, 15-10, 15-9. Riverland followed that up with a 15-8, 15-2 loss to UW LaCrosse. In the third match, Rochester upended RVLD 15-2, 15-13. The Blue Devils recorded their third conference win by beating Anoka-Ramsey 15-9, 15-15, 15-12. “It was a nice win. We started slow but picked up the pace and got on top quick in the second game” said Jahr. Ridgewater defeated the Blue Devils 5-15, 6-15, 15-6, 8-15 and dropped them to 3-6 in the conference and 6-18 overall. Riverland Community College closed out the season defeating Minnesota West 15-4, 15-2, 15-2. With the win the Blue Devils assured themselves a trip in the state tournament as the top four from each division qualify. The Blue Devils were seeded 3rd from the southern division. In the opening round of the MCCC state tournament, RVLD dropped its first match 15-4, 15-10, 15-3 to Rainy River.
Riverland lost two more matches, losing to Rochester 15-3, 15-4, 15-6 and Fergus Falls (15-6, 15-8, 12-15, 15-12) to drop into the consolation semifinals and lost to Ridgewater 3-0 in the first game of the single elimination round. Shanna Dagestad made the All-tournament team. The Blue Devils finished the season 7-22 overall. Jamie Mauseth led with seven kills and eleven digs. Dagestad earned first team All-Southern Division while Missy Avery, Jamie Mauseth, and Heather Irvin were named to the second team All-Division.

SOCCER-  Coach Roberto Romo Riverland Community College fielded a club soccer team for the third consecutive season. The Blue Devils defeated defeated UW Richland 7-0 for its second win over the Wisconsin team and improved to 2-1. Jon Olson, Vlado Blagojevic, and Dave Handeland each scored twice and Jamail Akodhi had the other goal. Lyle Sellers picked up the shutout by stopping 20 shots.

Basketball  Coach David Lillemo Riverland return six players with some good experience and Coach Lillemo is optimistic that his team can improve on last year’s 12-12 mark. Riverland lost their opener as Des Moines went on an early second half 16-0 run to cruise to a 78-46 win over the Blue Devils. “In all my years (14th year as head coach) of coaching, this is the quickest team I have ever seen” said Lillemo. Zak Ulwelling led Riverland with 10 points. The Blue Devils defeated UW Richland 58-48 in non-conference action. Ryan Hansen had 11 and Brandon Kettner 10 for the Blue Devils. Riverland faced Des Moines for the second time in two weeks and lost 62-39. “It was a much improved effort” said Coach Lillemo. The Blue Devils defeated UW Richland on the road 76-50 to even its record at 2-2. The Blue Devils outscored their opponent 32-12 the final nine minutes to cruise to the victory. Matt Nalan led with 13 followed by Kettner with a dozen. Nick Peter’s 19 points sparked a second half comeback but the Blue Devils could not hang on and dropped a 81-70 overtime decision to Central Lakes. Kettner (16) and Ulwelling (12) also scored in double figures. Peters caught fire and poured in 25 points to lead the Blue Devils over Itasca 107-81. Peters hit seven three pointers while teammate Brandon Kettner was the leading scorer with 27 points. Riverland lost to Fergus Falls 69-53 in a game Lillemo described as “an outstanding defensive effort” versus a team that averages 90 points a game. Kettner led with 15 followed by Peters who had 11. Riverland is now 4-5 overall. WWTI dropped the Blue Devils 71-65 despite Nick Peter’s 25 points.
Brandon Kettner chipped in with 21. In a rematch, Riverland Community College handed WWTI an 84-58 setback. “Our intensity was great” said Coach Lillemon. Kettner led with 16, Peters added 14, Manuel Mitchell 12, Brett Rogers 12, and Tom Yost 10. In the final non-conference game, Madison defeated the Blue Devils 79-70. Peters had 20 and Rogers a dozen to lead the Blue Devils, who finished 5-7 in non-league action. Riverland got off to a sluggish start (20-7) and lost to Rochester 82-77 in the conference opener. Brandon Kettner led all scorers with 25 points followed by Zak Ulwelling with 14. RVLD is now 0-1 and 5-8 overall. Minneapolis defeated Riverland 83-63 led by 6’10’ Jerry Holman. Nick Peters led the Blue Devils with 22 followed by Marzell Little who added 13. RVLD handed Minnesota West an 80-69 defeat for the Blue Devil’s first league victory. Peters knocked down 7 three pointers on his way to a career high 33 points. Brandon Kettner chipped in with 14. Anoka-Ramsey handed the Blue Devils a 64-62 loss as RVLD failed to score in the final four minutes. “This is a heart wrenching loss” said a dejected Coach Lillemon. The Blue Devils had four in double figures led by Kettner’s 13 points. Riverland fell to 1-3 in the MCCC and 6-10 overall. Ridgewater defeated Riverland 73-62 as 14 first half turnovers led to a 12 point halftime deficit. Brandon Kettner had 24 tallies to lead his team in defeat. Riverland upset fourth ranked Bethany behind the stellar play of Zak Ulwelling and Marzell Little. Ulwelling poured in 22 and Little was next with 19 followed by Nick Peter’s 17 points. “It was a huge win for us” said Lillemen whose team climbed into fourth place in the division standings. Rochester upended the Blue Devils 80-62 in league action. Peters led Riverland with 16 followed by Tom Yost and Brandon Kettner with 14 apiece. RVLD drops to 2-5 in the conference and 8-11 overall. Down 12-0 to start the game, the Blue Devils gave Minneapolis (20-0) all they wanted but lost 83-72. Ulwelling led with 19, followed by Marzell Little with 13 and Yost added 10 points. The Blue Devils pounded Minnesota West 90-66 in conference play. Zak Ulwelling and Nick Peters led them to a 47-36 halftime lead and then the inside game of Brandon Kettner and Tom Yost took over in the second half. Riverland kept its playoff hopes alive with a 73-70 road win over Anoka-Ramsey. It was the first time in Lillemen’s 14 years the Blue Devils defeated the Rams on the road. For the fifth game in a row, five players reached double figures led by Zak Ulwelling’s 18, Peters and Yost had 14, Kettner added 13, and Marzell Little 11. Coach Lillemen reached the 100 win milestone in the team’s tenth victory of the year (10-12). The Blue Devils shot 30% from the field and dashed any hopes of state tournament berth as Ridgewater upended Riverland 74-64. Marzell Little led four in double figures with 15, followed by Ulwelling and Peters with 11. The Blue Devils finished on a high note as they upended Bethany 67-66 on the road. Little led with 19 including five three pointers, followed by Nick Peters with 16, Zak Ulwelling and Brandon Kettner 10 apiece.
Kettner also had 14 rebounds for the Blue Devils, who won three of their last four games to finish 5-7 in the conference and 11-13 overall. Brandon Kettner and Nick Peters earned All-Conference honors while Peters was selected to the All-State team. Kettner averaged 13.7 points and 9.7 rebounds per contest. Peters led the conference in 3-pointers made with 69 (69 of 163-42%) and averaged 15.2 points per game. Riverland Community College was the top academic team with a 3.07 GPA.

SOFTBALL Coach Lisa-Quednow Bickler 19-9 (12-2 conf)
Tied for Division Champions (Central Lakes). MCCC—state runner-up
The Blue Devils opened the season splitting a pair with Ridgewater, winning 7-5 and losing the nightcap 5-4. Freshman Sherry Chessmore earned the win and loss on the mound for the Blue Devils. “They went to regions last year so a split is not bad on our first day of competition” said Coach Quendow-Bickler. Riverland Community College defeated North Hennepin 14-2 and 11-0 in conference action. Chessmore improved to 3-1 as did the Blue Devils. Tammy May went 3-3 in game one. Sara Nagele and Billie Anderson had two hits a piece in the nightcap. Riverland crushed Minnesota West 25-0 and 21-0 in league action. May again led the attack with 2-3 and home run in game one. Anderson had two hits and three RBI in game two while Tiffany Moon collected four RBI. Chessmore threw both shut outs to record the victories on the mound. Riverland swept defending state champs Bethany 8-4 and 10-3 in non-conference action. The Blue Devils are now 9-1 overall. The Blue Devils got swept by Central Lakes 11-3 and 14-3. It was the lowest offensive output of the year for Riverland. The Blue Devils dropped another pair in the Minnesota West invitational. RVLD lost 6-5 to Southwestern State and 10-3 to Stout. Riverland Community College bounced back after losing four straight by defeating Bethany 3-2 and 10-5. “It has been a long time since we have been 4-0 against Bethany in a year” said an elated Lisa-Quednow Bickler. Sherry Chessmore pitched a one-hitter in the opener. Missy Avery led with 3 for 3 as Riverland led 3-0 after three innings and held on for the victory.
In the nightcap, Sara Nagele went 4 for 5 with a triple, home run and five RBI leading the Blue Devils to a come from behind win. Riverland now stands 6-2 in the conference and 11-5 overall.
