

Sally Student

Marie Lechelt

ENGL 1104-04

14, January 2008

Title

Here is where my attention-getter would be written in my essay. Then I would go to the general thesis, as well as, the map or plan of my essay. I might also include some facts or other important information on my topic. Finally, I would end my introduction with a transition into the body of my essay.

Then I would begin with a sentence that not only had to do with my first point, already mentioned in my introduction, but also tied nicely to the transition I just wrote at the end of my introductions. Then I would continue on with my first point.....

.....
.....

Second paragraph.....
.....and so on.

Finally, I would end with my conclusion.....

.....
.....