- A contributor, that does not have an SSN and does not wish to create an FSA user account, will need to work with their student to complete a paper FAFSA form.
- The form will be available at studentaid.gov. Carefully read the instructions. Parents or spouses, to be listed on the paper application, that do not have an SSN will instead enter all zeros in the SSN field.
- The student should maintain a copy of the application before it is mailed to the Department of Education. Expect several weeks for the application to be processed.
